

Murad Khateeb Report Review

Writing Style

The professional writing style has been used and the information is very clear. The report contains all the details about the project and literature information is properly referenced. Report contains a very detailed information which resulted in a bit lengthy report but contains a very helpful information.

Experimental Design

The content includes all the information and appropriately defines the question. Experiments conducted are justifiable and easy to reproduce. Hypothesis are well defined and have critical results analysis.

Results

Results are correctly examined and have very good accuracy for the classification. It has best configuration of the classifier that could be used to get the best results. Those configurations were tested while reviewing and the results matched.

Verdict

Accepted!